

Sport & Tourism – Introductory Report

Table of Contents

I Challenges

1 Areas to be covered: joint analysis of the challenges which both sport and tourism face at the dawn of a new millennium.

- 1.1 Objectives of the world conference
- 1.2 Looking for areas of common interest
- 1.3 The great challenges

2 The system of sport and tourism: defining similarities and analysing differences

- 2.1 The different rationale of the world of sport
- 2.2 Tourism that includes a sports component and sports tourism
- 2.3 The specific links between sport and tourism

3 The future of sport and of sports tourism: major demand-side trends

- 3.1 Competitive sports versus freestyle sports
- 3.2 Sports-related tourism and the experience society
- 3.3 Need for synergies between sport and tourism

II Socio-economic impacts

4 Sport and tourism in modern societies: recognising the importance of both these phenomena for the development of individuals and communities.

- 4.1 Tourism and sport as psychosocial necessities
- 4.2 The psychosocial and economic functions of tourism
- 4.3 Public interest in sport and tourism

5 The economic significance of tourism and sport: discovering the impact on households, the economy and the state

- 5.1 Macroeconomic questions
- 5.2 Value added clusters
- 5.3 A convincing performance

6 Mega events in sports and tourism: creating opportunities for sustainable development

- 6.1 The multiplier effect of sports events
- 6.2 Direct tourism benefits from mega sports events
- 6.3 Management of events portfolios

III Managing Change

7 Externalities: defining the public-private partnership

7.1 Investments, financing problems and the role of the state

7.2 Positive and negative effects of investments

7.3 Cost-benefit analysis

8 The innovation creation mechanisms: guaranteeing continuous development

8.1 The tourism environment as a source of innovation

8.2 The innovation process

8.3 Innovation management

9. Marketing management: making use of the synergies between sport and tourism.

9.1. Sports and destination marketing

9.2. Sponsoring and merchandising

9.3. Institutional aspects

IV Conclusions

10. Final remarks and proposed measures

10.1. Reflecting together

10.2. Institutionalised co-operation

10.3. Joint research agenda

References

Tables 60

Per la versione originale del documento consultare il seguente link: www.unwto.org